Your eligibility for child care has been approved beginning through or until there is change in eligibility, whichever is sooner. We cannot pay for child care provide before the date you were approved. Eligibility will be redetermined near the end of your eligibilty period, but mat beredetermined sooner if there is a change in income, family size or at the Department's discretion.

REPORTING CHANGES: You are responsible for notifying within 10 days

if you Change Providers, Stop Working or Change Jobs, Stop Attending School or Training, Change Family Size, Change Income, Change Address, Stong Receiving TANF, Have Maternity/Medical Leave, or Have any Other Changes that may affect your eligibility. Failure to do so in a timely manner may result in payback of over payments and/or loss of child care benefits. Also, report these changes to your DHS local office caseworker if you are receiving other benefits from DHS.

PARENT CO-PAYMENT: The parent/guardian is required to help pay for the cost Of child care. This is called the parent co-payment. The parent co-payment is based on gross monthly income, family size, and number Of children receiving care. The provider is responsible for collecting the parent co-payment. The state will deduct the parent co-payment from the total charges up to the maximum child care rate. If the co-payment is more than the total charges, the parent pays the lesser amount to the provider and no payment is made by the state.
